Defendant. ¹)

Pursuant to the Court's April 4, 2019 Order, ECF No. 104, Defendant respectfully submits the following status report, informing the Court of SSA's progress in completing the windfall-offset recalculations for the Class.

Recalculations are in progress for all class members.² As of July 2, 2019, 27,525 cases are awaiting quality review after completion of Part 1.³ An additional 94,172 cases are being processed in Part 1. There are 3,266 cases awaiting quality review after completion of Part 2. An additional 1,564 cases are being processed in Part 2. Finally, 415 cases are being processed in Part 3.

² Four of the 129,695 class members were found to be duplicates, so the total class number is 129,691 individuals.

As of July 2, 2019, SSA has completed⁴ 2,749 recalculations. Of those 2,749 recalculations, underpayments were due in 1,516 cases, totaling approximately $2,140,000 prior to withholding for payment of class counsel's fee. The highest underpayment was $16,024.40. No underpayments were due in 1,191 cases. Forty-three overpayments have been assessed.

Respectfully submitted,

⁴ Because fees for class counsel have not yet been determined, “completed” in this context refers to the completion of the recalculation and the issuance of any underpayment, if due, while withholding 20% of the underpayment for payment of potential attorney fees. However, in cases in which the class member is deceased, incarcerated, or otherwise not able to receive the underpayment due, the agency has calculated the underpayment and withheld 20% for potential attorney fees, but may not have released a payment pending identification of an individual eligible to receive the payment.
