Defendant-Appellant.)

ORDER

The Commissioner and the plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the class, jointly move to hold this case in abeyance pending the Commissioner’s recalculation of benefits within a two-year period. They suggest the abeyance continue until they either jointly inform the court that briefing is necessary or that the pending appeal is moot due to completion of the recalculations.

The joint motion to hold this appeal in abeyance is GRANTED, and briefing is cancelled until further notice. The parties are requested to file a short status report every six months, simply indicating whether briefing is necessary or whether the appeal is moot.
